

Alpers Dental

This project required the seismic upgrade and fitout for a state of the art dental practice within an existing occupied office building.

In addition to the VRF air conditioning systems there are additional High wall split systems in both plant rooms. They operate as stand alone 24 / 7 systems to control temperature in the plant areas.